GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING AND PROGRAM

On Wednesday evening, June 12, 7:00 PM, at the Kenton County Public Library, Covington, Mr. Karl Litzenmayer will speak on James T. Earle (1866-1943), the last Mayor of Latonia (before annexation) and the first President of First National Bank of Latonia.

Mr. Litzenmayer will bring photographs. And Earle's youngest daughter, Elizabeth Earle Guastini, will attend.

Mr. Earle had a varied career in banking, real estate, and politics, including attempts to close bars on Sunday. His general opposition to gambling included antipathy toward Latonia's own race track.

The meeting and program will be FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. There will be a brief business meeting before the program. The speaker will arrange to have some refreshments (non-alcoholic) and snacks.

A REGIONAL MEETING OF THE HISTORICAL CONFEDERATION OF KENTUCKY (HCK)

Historical and cultural organizations from the northern region (and elsewhere) are invited to a seminar sponsored by the Kenton County Historical Society. The northern region includes Boone, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton, Owen, and Pendleton counties. As you may recall, HCK, an affiliate of the Kentucky Historical Society, aims to provide outreach to local organizations.

The meeting will be on Saturday, June 29th, at the Boone County Public Library, 7425 Highway 42, in Florence (take the Florence-Union exit; parking nearby). Registration will be at 9:30-10:00 AM. After a discussion period, Mr. Greg Harper, Executive Director, at 11:00 AM, will discuss the Behringer-Crawford Museum, a natural and cultural museum located in Northern Kentucky. At 1:30 PM HCK representatives from the Frankfort office will profile the current programs for the Kentucky Bicentennial Celebration in 1992. The HCK staff and others will discuss other topics as well during the day. Lunch will be at the Commonwealth Hilton Hotel in Florence, or other place of choice.
